

2009-2010 Guilford Horticultural Society Meetings

Aspera Hydrangea

The Society meets at the Natural Science Center of Greensboro on Monday evenings in September, October, November, January, March, April and May. Meetings begin at 7:15, end by 8:45 and feature a speaker. The Center is at 4301 Lawndale Drive. Non members are welcome to attend all meetings free of charge.

The Society will hold its 2010 Symposium on Saturday February 27th at Emerald Events Center on East Wendover Avenue in Greensboro beginning at 9:00.

Sep 21 “Lush and Layered: Creating an Abundant Look in Your Garden”
Debra Prinzing – California writer and lecturer specializing in interiors, architecture and landscapes

Oct 19 “In the Herb Garden: Traditionals and Natives for Fabulous Gardens”
Kathy Schlosser – Herbalist and Native Plant specialist

Nov 16 “Conifers for the Piedmont”
Dr. Todd Lasseigne – Paul J. Ciener Botanical Garden Executive Director

Jan 11 “The Eclectic American Landscape”
Sally Pagliai – Studio Pagliai: Integrating Nature, Home and You

Feb 27 Symposium featuring Don Shadow

Mar 15 “Edible Landscaping: Fantastic Fruits for Your Front Yard”
Ellen Ashley – Master Gardeners President and Horticultural Society Leader

Apr 19 “Beyond Pampas: Ornamental Grasses for Today's Gardens”
John Hoffman – Hoffman Nursery, Rougemont, NC

May 17 “Friendly Fronds: Ferns for Home and Garden”
Roger Boyles – Take Root Nursery, Pittsboro, NC

Jun TBA Members and guests picnic at Dr. Graham Ray's garden